To - Judge Richard J. Sullivan,

How Are You Doing Your Honor? This Is "Shawn Arnold M~~E~~ Fadden" Register # 70882-054, I Was Arrested On "January 17, 2020" For A Violation Of Supervision Release And You Sentenced Me On "February 5th" To "6 Months" On A Max Out Without Anymore Probation. My Release Date Is "July 16th 2020". (I Am Asking you For The Permission To Get An Early Release (Compassionate) Release Due To This "Coronavirus Pandemic". A Couple Of Sentenced Inmates Have Been Released From MCC New York Due To Them Contacting Their Lawyers And Their Lawyers Putting In Motions To Their Judges And Being Granted For An "Immediate Release". I Am Living Here And I Am Scared For My Life Of Catching The Coronavirus And Possibly Dying In Here Being Around Inmates Who Were Infected (Being Taken To The Hospital And Brought Right Back). This Jail Has Been All Over The News And Everything. I'm Also Living In A 26 Man Tier In A Dorm With 26 Bunk Beds Which Are 2 Feet Away From One Another Which Is NOT "Social Distancing" At All, One Shower, And One Toilet For Everyone. Your Honor I Have Only "50 More Days" Left Which Is

Like 80% of My Time In, Im Just Asking You Again To Get An "Immediate Release" Because Im On A Max Out With No More Probation And Im Not Trying To Catch The "Coronavirus"

 For This Violation Which Was "Mr. Ezra Spilke" But There Was Never A Response, I Was Told Before I Got Sentenced That My Original
 Lawyer "Ms. Lori Cohen" Moved To Australia So "Mr. Ezra Spilke"
 Represented Me For This "VSOR" And The Public Defenders Office Told Me He Is A Private Lawyer So Thats Why Im Reaching Out To You
 Myself On My Behalf. Thanks For Taking Your Time Out For Reading
 This Letter, Have A Blessed Day, Im Praying I Get A Great Response Back From you Please And Thank You.
